("BKN" or "the Company")

BKN Has Sealed Major International Sub-Publishing deal with Fintage Music for its catalogue

BKN International AG has signed an agreement today with Fintage Music to handle all international music sub-publishing and administration for current and upcoming BKN music rights, it was announced today by Allen Bohbot, CEO and Niels Teves, CEO of Fintage Music.

The deal includes BKN series such as Legend of the Dragon, Dork Hunters from Outer Space and Zorro - Generation Z and films including Jungle Book - Rikki-Tikki-Tavi to the Rescue, Robin Hood - Quest for the King and Kong - Return to the Jungle.

"Having an organization with global reach like Fintage Music, which combines 20 years of expertise in both film and music rights collection, was very important to us," said Bohbot. "Fintage Music provides a secure and reliable service and has the flexibility to accommodate all of our needs."

Fintage Music is part of Fintage House, the leading provider of customized financial solutions for the film, television, and music industries. Fintage has recently expanded its music division, signing contracts with high profile catalogues and artists such as Lions Gate Films, 8 mile style (Eminem), Robbie Williams, Krist Novoselic (Nirvana), and ABC Television.

"BKN's list of film and television productions is impressive in both its international scope and tremendous success with audiences," said Teves. "Fintage Music is looking forward to working with BKN to maximize the earnings potential on its entire list of productions."
